

Nisa Silver Star Nations

Silver Star Nations is totally dedicated to the sweatlodge. To the unbounded space in the dark and the sound of the drums, calling back. She considers the ceremony as a reinstatement of Original Being, getting rid of all the nonsense, and reconnecting again with beauty, strength, awakens, and the wordless knowing in everything, as well as in us. We are fortunate to be given ceremony and to pass it on further, and to be a part of the changing of times.

In every ceremony new seeds are planted for a world in harmony and beauty, the way it originally was. For freedom, and for a wild beauty.

Koen Silver Wolf Drum

Silver Wolf Drum is healer and ceremonial leader. He is passionate to open up boundaries and seek the unmeasurable.

"We are all creatures with unlimited possibilities, we only have to open up and remember our gifts."

He loves drumming, dreams with the wolves, and loves to take people along to see the openings in existence. He gives healings, sweatlodges, spiritual travels and trainings, which are all filled with amazingly extraordinary sounds and an intensity in which the boundaries of the normal are being broken. All to waken up the originality - that which gives life and sparks.

The sweatlodge

The sweatlodge is an ancient ceremony that is to be found in different forms all over the world. In North America there is the Inipi, in Mexico the Temescal, in Siberia the Chadir, and the mother of the Finish Sauna, the Savu Sauna is very similar to the Sweatlodge we know today.

The Sweatlodge comes from a time, where people were still hunters and living in harmony with the cycle and movements of the earth and the universe. They were using the Sweatlodge for visions, prayer, healing, understanding and knowledge about life and beyond all forms.

This knowledge has not been lost and everyone longing for reconnection and exploration with this deeper layers of his/her existence could find here a source of unending possibilities.

The Sweatlodge helps clicking in to your original self, in a timeless state, where you can look into the face of life itself. You can feel how your are being carried in life and how you're connected with all that exists. From here the realization comes that you are deeply connected with the earth, the animals, the trees, the stars, and all the people around you, and from this connected state you can communicate with everything around you and invite the living knowledge, which is our heritage.

Be Welcome!

Oheyo Genero!

Be welcome to join us in exploring our drums in a shamanic way.

These 2 days we'll work intensively with the drums. We'll build up understanding in how to use the drums and how to connect with it on a conscious level.

We'll do initiations, ceremonies and healings with the drum and of course drum a lot. We will work with ancestors and totems and different other personal medicines, so we can integrate the drum into our lives.

You will also learn about the practical stuff about drums, their sounds and the effect of different drumsticks, etc.

After this weekend you will know a lot about using your drum and setting up ceremonies with it.

This seminar will be guided by Koen Silver Wolf Drum and Nisa Silver Star Nations, who are master drummers adopted in the Susquehannock Tribe of Florida.
